Instructions

Everyone in your party must sign the waiver before arriving for your reservation.

I understand and acknowledge that participation in railriding activities involves inherent risks including but not limited to collisions, derailments, falls, equipment failure, changing weather conditions, wildlife encounters, physical exertion, and serious bodily injury or death. By checking this box and participating, I voluntarily assume all risks associated with the activity, whether known or unknown. I agree to follow all safety instructions, rules, and directions provided by staff at all times.

I hereby release, waive, and hold harmless Vance Creek Railriders, its owners, officers, employees, contractors, affiliates, and property partners from any and all claims, liabilities, damages, injuries, losses, or disputes arising out of or related to my participation, including claims based on ordinary negligence, to the fullest extent permitted under Washington law.

I further agree that any dispute arising from participation shall be governed by the laws of the State of Washington and resolved exclusively in the courts located in Shelton, Washington. I confirm that I have read, understood, and agreed to the Terms & Conditions and Liability Waiver.
